

Dear Customers,

On this page, you will find notifications about upcoming changes to the Fees and General Terms and Conditions of MyFin EAD (the Company). The notifications include the full version of the documents – the new General Terms or the relevant parts of the Fees, provided in a format that allows you to download, store indefinitely, and print them for documentation, future reference, or unchanged reproduction.

MyFin EAD provides information about the planned changes by sending individual notifications and updated documents to users electronically. Additionally, customers can find these documents on the official MyFin website in the "Upcoming Changes to the Fees" section, where they can also be downloaded, stored, and printed.

MyFin EAD ensures that information is provided in an accessible format for users with disabilities, in compliance with applicable legislation and the European Union's requirements for the accessibility of products and services.

If the changes affect payment services and the customer does not agree with them, they have the right, after settling any obligations to the Company (if applicable), to terminate the contract without notice and without owing compensation or penalties in connection with this, before the date on which the proposed changes take effect.

More information about the changes, your rights, and the applicable terms can be found in the respective General Terms and Conditions and contracts for the services provided by MyFin AD.

MyFin EAD strives to provide all necessary information in a clear and accessible manner to help its customers choose and use the appropriate products and services tailored to their needs.

Stay informed!

